"A TEXAS STEER."

Charles H. Hoyt's great American comedy, "A Texas Steer," was presented last night at the Charleston theater to an enthusiastic audience, who laughed and applauded the Hoytian wit and satire. The cast is an unusually good one. Frank M. Reedick as "Maverick Brand," "Texas Cattle King" and Congressman, is excellent and has a splendid conception of the author's ideas. Nina Wilher is the ideal, "Bossy," bright, chic and dashing and demonstrates her remarkable ability as the society girl in the evolution from the Texas ranch to Washington society. James A. Devlin as "Brassy gall" was the lobbyist true to life and he carried the part to success, and the balance of the cast was all that could be desired.—Charleston Daily Plaindealer, November 14, 1907.

MAYSVILLE THANKFUL

Dr. Barbour in His Sunday Sermon Admonishes Us to Look on "The Bright Side."

Rev. Dr. Barbour in his sermon yesterday said that we were so given to finding faults in our town that it might be well to look a little on the other side. Here are a few things for general thanksgiving:

Freedom from epidemic or general scourge of any kind.

The absence of violence in our midst as in many places; this, notwithstanding the recent local option campaign and the strained tobacco situation.

The town growing and improving—new streets, new schoolhouses and one of the finest new Churches in the state.

Increasing harmony in the work of the Churches.

Growth in temperance sentiment in our town.

Our schools improving in their standard and in the administration of them.

Good stores and public utilities of every kind.

The best streetcar system of any town of its size.

The river at a fine stage for the season. Abundant crops in garden and in field. Employment for all at living wages.

Immunity from the alarms and losses of the panic elsewhere.

A city mission for the neglected. Above all, the Gospel preached and the comforts of religion offered to all, and no destructive heresy in our midst.

Let everybody praise God, who is the giver of all good.

THERE has never before been a time in the history of this country when a farmer could pay his debts or accumulate money as at present. Everything the farmer sells in either grain or live stock it commands a good price and a ready market.

SUCH is fame: Only a few short years ago there was a writer in the theatrical columns of The Cincinnati Enquirer who delighted the reading public under the nom de plume of "Ah There." He was up-to-date, witty and polished in his dramatic criticisms, and every word he penned was to the point and made a noise like a smile. This pleasing satirist was Colonel AHERN THAYER, age 67, who died at Butte, Mont., last Wednesday. There are not many left like "Ah There." Are there?

WHY is J. P. MORGAN like Pharaoh's daughter? Because he found a little profit in the rushes on the banks.—Boston Transcript.

THE present unhappy and notorious condition of justice in old Kentucky is so deplorable that one forces his senses to wonder where it is all going to lead.

THERE are now 45,000 men employed in constructing the Panama Canal, and even the ghost of Senator MORGAN and "Old Transcontinental" himself must admit that your Uncle Samuel is going to complete the greatest engineering feat ever attempted.

Six weeks before Christmas, and one Cincinnati banker has already announced that his bank will pay all the clerks—seventy-five of them—an extra month's salary at Christmas, in consideration of the extra work forced on them during the financial stringency. This institution evidently didn't participate in the "stringency."

THE annual report of the C., N. O. and T. P. Railway Company, the Cincinnati Southern, for the past year shows that notwithstanding the fact that several Southern states have adopted 2-cent fare laws, the revenue from passenger traffic for the year was $446,898 more than the year before. This half a million dollar increase is evidence enough of the justness of the 2-cent fare law.

A LONG CAMPAIGN.

"Sir, I have merely started my Christmas shopping."

UNJUST TAX PLAN

The Tax Commissioners of the States Agree

In Denouncing General Tax System Like Ours—Full of Evils In Operation.

In discussing tax questions in Kentucky and elsewhere, frequent reference is made to the "general property tax." This is the kind of system Kentucky has in force. It is the system that is in force in most of the states.

Briefly, the general property tax is a uniform ad valorem tax levied upon all classes of property alike, regardless of the nature, of the earning capacity or of the tangible or intangible character of the property. The taxing authority of a state, for instance, will levy a tax of 50 cents. This tax is to fall upon every kind of property alike. Everything of value, whether real estate, money in bank, notes, bonds, mortgages, shares of stock, live stock, wagons, carriages, jewelry, furniture, any sort of personal property, or franchises of corporations is called property and must pay this tax. This is the general property tax. The general property tax is, therefore, the levying of a uniform ad valorem tax on all property for all purposes.

As distinct from this system is the system of classifying property, raising state revenues from one kind of property, county revenues from another kind of property and city revenues from still another kind, and also the raising of revenues by special taxes of various kinds. The argument in the tax world today is between these two systems of raising the public revenue.

The Kentucky system is the general property tax. Our constitution binds us to the levy of a uniform ad valorem tax on all property of every kind for all purposes. If a piece of property located in the city is taxed for one purpose, it must be taxed for all. If it is a property-earning 6 per cent return to its owner, it must pay the same tax as property earning 20 per cent. If it is a kind that can be removed or hidden it is taxed the same as real estate—if it can be found. No distinction is made on any account whatever; all property must pay the same rate.

This sounds like a very fair system, and in theory, it is fairness itself. But its operation, in the opinion of those who have studied the question, not in Kentucky only but in every state in the Union, has not borne out the promise made for it. The system has been abandoned in Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Delaware, New Jersey, Wisconsin, Oregon, and partially in a number of other states. The rapid tendency of the states is to get away from it, as impossible and impracticable. Nearly every state that has a tax commission has declared itself very frankly on this question. A large number of states have within the last few years appointed tax commissions to carefully study the methods of raising public revenues and, almost invariably, the reports of these commissions have denounced the general property tax system, the system that we have in Kentucky, as being absurd, impossible of enforcement and unjust in its operation.

Denounced by Supreme Court.
The supreme court of the United States leads the way in denouncing the system. In its opinion in the case of the Pacific Express Co. vs. Seibert, the court said:

"This court has repeatedly laid down the doctrine that diversity of taxation, both with respect to the amount imposed and the various species of property selected either for bearing its burdens or being exempt from them, is not inconsistent with a perfect uniformity and equality of taxation in the proper sense of those terms; and that a system which imposes the same tax upon every species of property, irrespective of its nature or condition or class, will be destructive of the principle of uniformity and equality in taxation and of a just adaptation of property to its burdens."

An Illinois tax commission has declared that the uniform ad valorem general property tax, the system that we have also in Kentucky, "is debauching to the conscience and subversive to the public morals—a school for perjury, promoted by law."

An Ohio tax commission has denounced it as "imposing unjust burdens on the man who is scrupulously honest," and Ohio is engaged in an effort to get rid of it.

A New Hampshire tax commission deprecates its "corrupting and demoralizing influence."

A New York tax commission says: "It puts a premium on perjury and a penalty on integrity."

In an address to the general assembly of Maryland, Richard T. Ely, one of the greatest of our publicists, said: "The one uniform tax on all property as an exclusive source of revenue never has worked well in any modern community or state in the entire civilized world, though it has been tried thousands of times, and although all the mental resources of able men have been employed to make it work well."

Prof. E. A. Angell, late tax commissioner of Ohio, said in an article in the Independent: "The indirect results of the operation of the law have been to drive away large masses of capital from the state. It is estimated that at least $200,000,000 has been lost to Cleveland alone, and as much more to Cincinnati."

FARMERS IN MANY STATES WANT RELIEF FROM UNFAIR TAXATION.

Constitutional amendments are being given thorough attention by farmers of the country. In Ohio, Hon. F. A. Derthick, master of the State Grange, in discussing a proposition to permit of classification of the sources of tax revenue, said:

"There is a common ground upon which we can all stand. We must have in increasing amount of revenue, and that means a more just return of the property in the state. Where is the injustice of laying a reasonable tax on the deposits reported by the banks of the state, the same to be charged to depositors? True, not all depositors are residents of Ohio, but they enjoy the protection of our laws and in large measure draw their interest from our people.

"This could, at least, be done with resident depositors and they would be relieved from the temptation to commit the crime of perjury."

The Kentucky Grange.
The Kentucky State Grange had this same subject before it at the meeting held in Frankfort October 21 to 23, 1907. Mr. F. P. Wolcott, Master of the State Grange, discussed the question in a very interesting manner, as follows:

"The order has been most active in behalf of the just regulation of taxation, recognizing that the farmer is losing more from our present system and has more to gain from the establishment of a just and equitable system of taxation than has any other class of citizens. The order in representing the agricultural class, always endeavors to be fair and honorable with all other interests, and has the right to demand like treatment in return. In nearly every state in the Union the cry has been loud against unjust revenue laws, and steps are being taken to remedy the evils.

"Various State Granges have, by their action, declared it wrong to legislate into the organic laws of a state any provision which shall exempt from taxation property aggregating vast sums, in the possession of the wealthy, and often kept by them invisible, thus leaving the small holders of the masses of people of moderate means to bear the burden of doubled taxation.

"The present constitution of Kentucky binds us to the general property tax—that is, to the system of levying the same tax upon all classes of property for all purposes. There should be an amendment to our constitution which will allow the legislature to separate the sources of revenue—that is, to raise the state revenue from certain classes of property, leaving other classes of property to be taxed for local purposes only.

"It has been argued by some that this would throw too much power into the hands of the legislature. Should such an amendment prevail, then would it devolve upon the voters of the state to pay stricter attention to the selection of their representatives than has obtained in the past in both city and country.

"The Kentucky State Development association and other organizations have honored the Grange by placing upon its joint committee on taxation, a member of this order as representative of the agricultural interests of the state, and it is important that the views and demands of the farmers be clearly defined at this state session. It is recommended that this body promptly and emphatically take action in favor of just and equitable revenue laws, and for the establishment of an official tax commission, to be composed of five members—four representing respectively the great industries, agriculture, manufacturing, mining and commerce, and a fifth member, noted for the highest integrity and for superior legal ability.

ORGANIZED

The Dover District School Improvement League Form Saturday Fine Exercises

The Dover School Improvement League was organized at the Baptist Church Saturday afternoon. In spite of the inclement weather a large crowd assembled in the interest of better schools.

After the singing of America, Mrs. Hickman, Principal of Dover School, in well chosen words delivered the opening address.

Miss Ethel McMillan, Secretary of the Mason County School Improvement League gave a history of the Kentucky State League and spoke at length on School Conditions in Mason County.

Superintendent Wells made an earnest plea for community co-operation in behalf of the school. He stated that in many school districts modern buildings need to be built or the old ones repaired; that the recitation rooms need to be brightened and better equipped with maps, charts, blackboards, etc.; benches to be mended and libraries provided.

W. C. Coryell pointed to the achievements of School Improvement Leagues in other states and claimed that they should do a great work in Kentucky.

All were delighted with a very appropriate solo from Mrs. J. L. Osborne.

Prof. J. A. Wagner of Minerva presented very forcefully the needs of better rural schools. He declared that we are more careful about the building and equipment of our jails and Penitentiaries for our criminals and convicts, than of our schoolhouses for our precious boys and girls.

Miss Louise Campbell, Principal of South Ripley School, offered a number of practical suggestions.

Mrs. Hickman reported a constitution which was adopted.

The following officers were elected: President—Mr. George W. Fulton. Vice-President—Mrs. William Moore. Secretary—Treasurer—Mrs. J. L. Osborne.

Mr. Fulton speaking to the point asked the hearty co-operation of the citizens of the community.

The program was interspersed with musical selections by the orchestra, composed of W. F. Munzing, violin; W. A. Munzing, cello; Everett Dunham, flute. Mrs. J. Elgin Anderson played the organ.

Dover has considerable community pride and a good school spirit. The school is progressing nicely with Mrs. Hickman as Principal and Miss Bacon, assistant.

The visitors declared the recitation rooms to be the most attractive of any they had seen in the county.

Complimentary Notice From a Lewis County Brother

Rev. W. T. Spears, in The Christian Observer, speaks thus of Rev. Joseph M. Evans of this city:

In connection with my work at Vancoburg, Ky., I am doing some mission work at Sandy Springs Church, across the river in Ohio. This is a little band of faithful Presbyterians in Portsmouth Presbytery. I am trying to hold that community for our Church. We have a good brick Church with about eighteen members. About two weeks ago, Rev. J. M. Evans came to assist me in a meeting there. He has done some very faithful work both in visiting from house to house, and preaching the Gospel with great power and simplicity. Up to the 9th, eighteen have united with the Church and others are interested. Our Church has a faithful band of women at Sandy Springs, who are working very efficiently in the Sabbath school at that place, and are helping our own girls older to do a good work for the Master in that community. Just before coming to Sandy Springs, Mr. Evans spent two weeks at Rome, Ohio, where there is a little band of twelve or fifteen Presbyterians with a good building. This Church is also in Portsmouth Presbytery. His meeting there did great good and there were eight additions to the Presbyterians Church. Mr. Evans is very effective in such work for a man now beyond seventy years of age. Few men at forty can do the work that he can.

IN THE CHARACTER OF THE

Men's, Young Men's & Boys' CLOTHING

This store fulfills the highest possible mission of a modern retail establishment, in fact, our ambition is not so much to have the biggest business as it is to have the best business in the city. If bigness comes, as it often does from a policy of creating a new standard of quality, then we accept bigness as the result of our efforts rather than the object of them. If you want distinction in your clothes, a style and pattern that will separate you from ordinary dressers, appearance that gives an air of refinement, there is but one store to visit.

OUR CLOTHING IS NO BETTER than our SHOES

For we are the leaders in both lines. The Crossette, the Stetson, the M. & K., the three best Shoes made. Prices range from $3 to $6.

THE GOOD CLOTHES MAN, N. E. Cor. Second and Market Sts. DODSON BUILDING.

UPLIFT OF THE SALOON

Is the Plan of the Model License League—Hopes to Remove Enmity

The saloonmen and wholesale liquor dealers of Maysville are heartily in accord with the movement.

The league would have a clear, unambiguous license for every saloon; not too high, so that the handling of cheap goods be necessary; that the hours should be reasonable and upon first conviction of disobedience of contracts in the license, the saloonist should have the permit withdrawn thirty days, and on second offense canceled.

The idea is to raise the tone of the saloon business; eliminate the dives, prevent sale to minors and inebriates and insure closing at hours that will not arouse enmity against the trade.

The Sunday business here has been eliminated and the saloons generally are conducted on a stricter and higher plane than was formerly the custom.

TESTED AND PROVEN

There is a Heap of Solace in Being Able to Depend Upon a Well-Earned Reputation

For months Maysville readers have seen the constant expression of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills, and read about the good work they have done in this locality. Not another remedy ever produced such convincing proof of merit. A. W. McClanahan of A. W. and B. P. McClanahan, grocers, at 121 Second street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"I can endorse Doan's Kidney Pills more heartily today than I did five years ago when I told the Maysville people that this medicine had cured me of severe kidney trouble and backache that had bothered me for twenty years and seemed to be growing worse all the time. I repeat that I can more confidently recommend Doan's Kidney Pills today than I did in that testimonial because my cure has been permanent and I have had no kidney trouble for nearly five years. As proof that I am a firm believer in Doan's Kidney Pills I will be only too pleased to reiterate the above to anyone who may inquire."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Did you see the report in the Boot and Shoe Papers of the large shipments of Boots and Shoes from Boston last week to Dan Cohen, Cincinnati? Mr. Cohen has just returned from Boston, and never found the makers so eager to turn their goods into cash.
